2410030341 -MOHAMMAD UMAR

Section-A4

Experiment: EC2 Instance — Windows

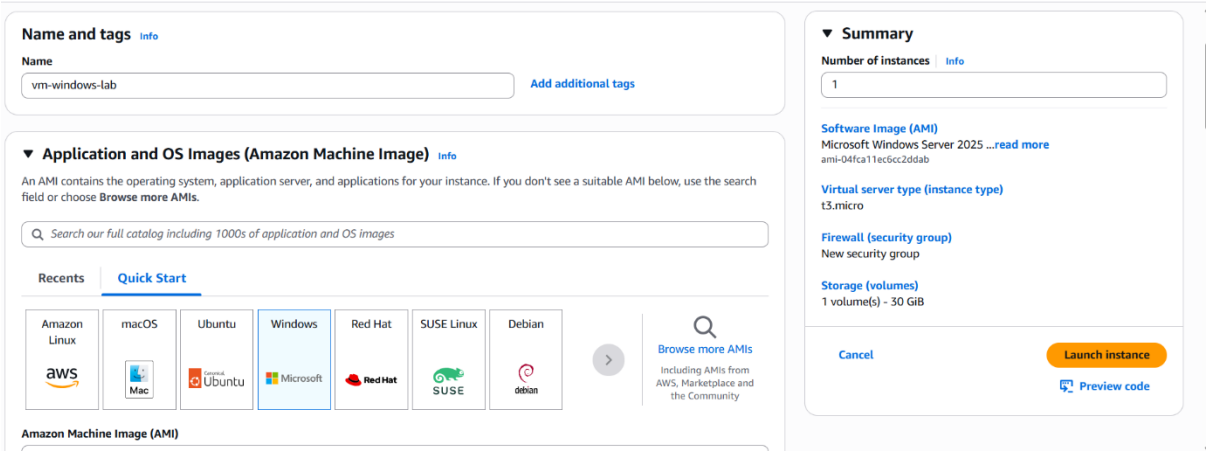

Aim

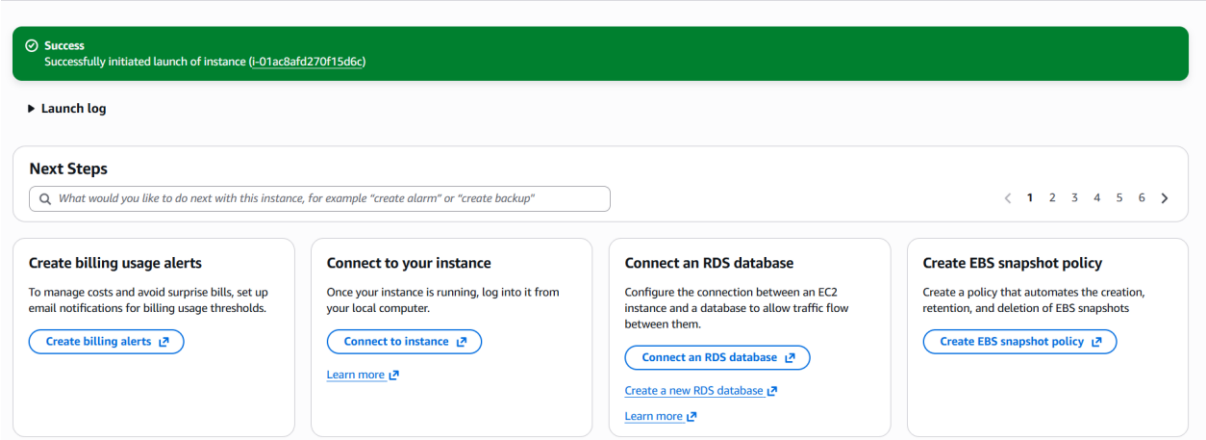

To launch a Windows Server EC2 instance in AWS and configure it for remote access.
To connect to and access the Windows Server instance successfully.

Open Aws console

Search EC2

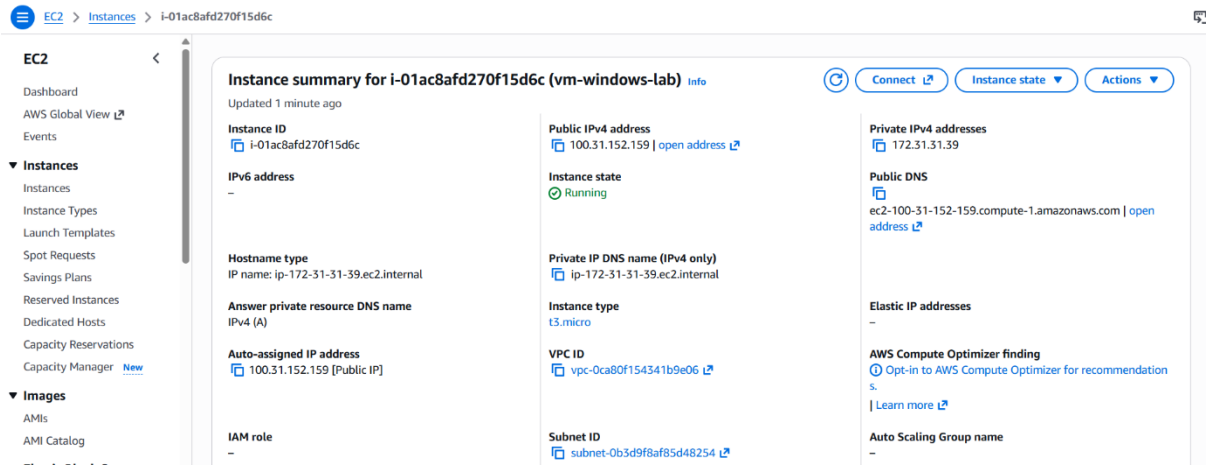

1. Launch Instance
2. Name & Tags → VM-Windows-lab
3. Instance Type → t3
4. Key Pair → VM-Windows-lab → Create key pair
5. Network Settings → Allow public access (Enable)
6. Launch Instance

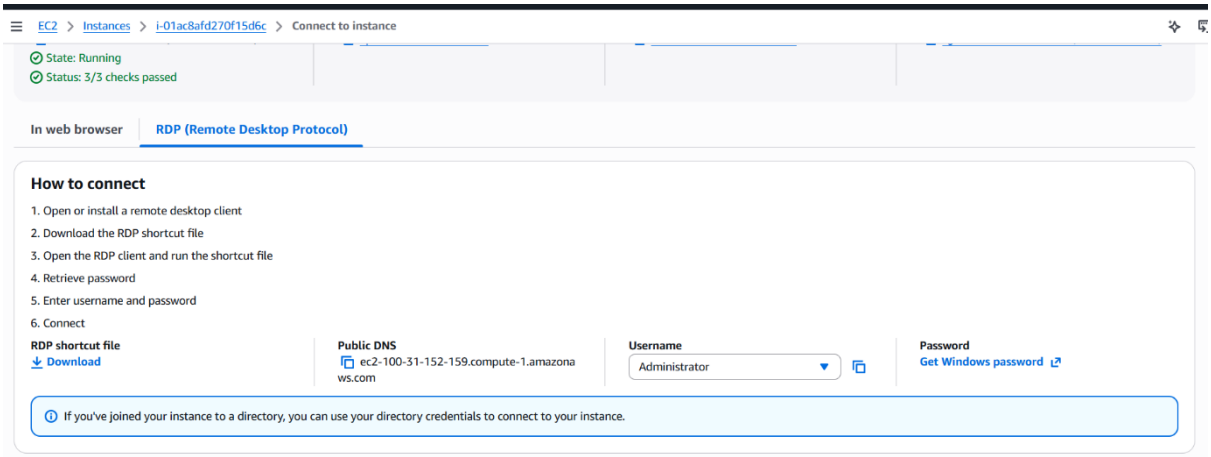

Connect to Windows

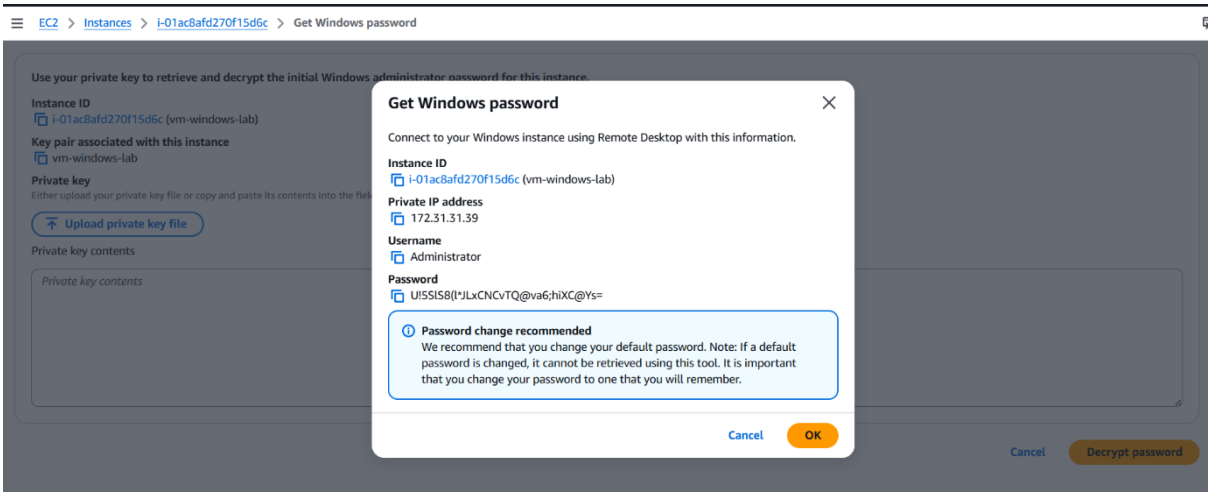

7. Open Remote Desktop Connection .
8. Click the Instance ID
9. Copy the Public IPv4 Address is 100.31.152.159

10. Go to Connect → RDP Client → click on Get Password.

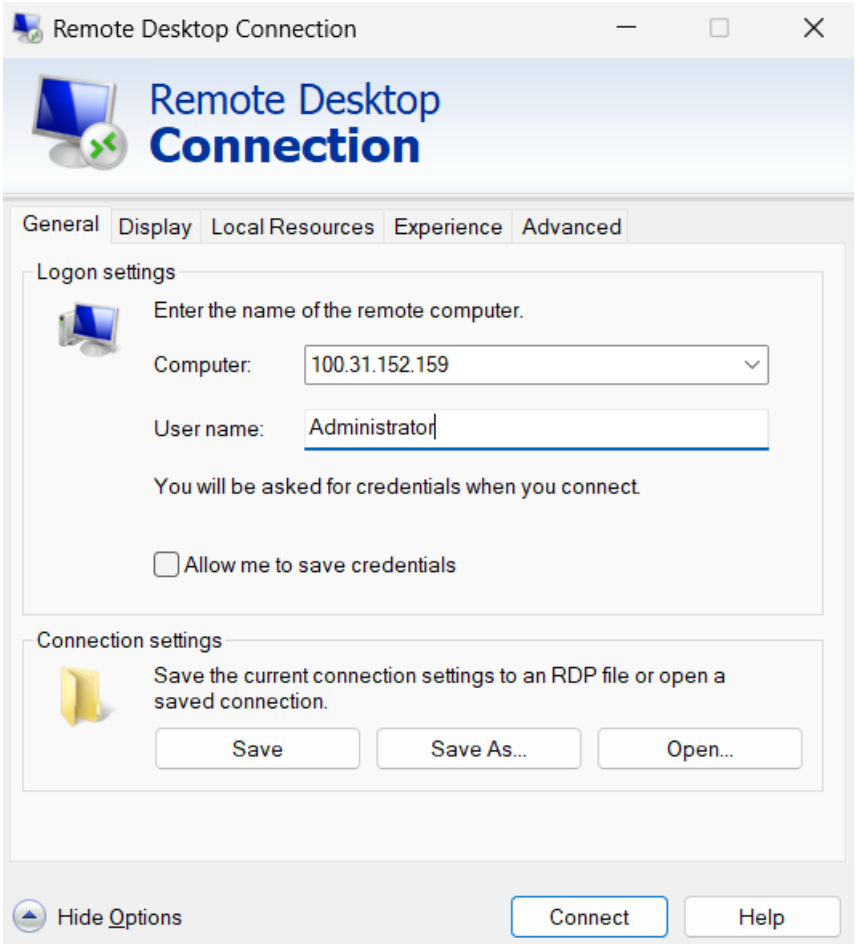

11. Upload the .pem key file → Decrypt Password.

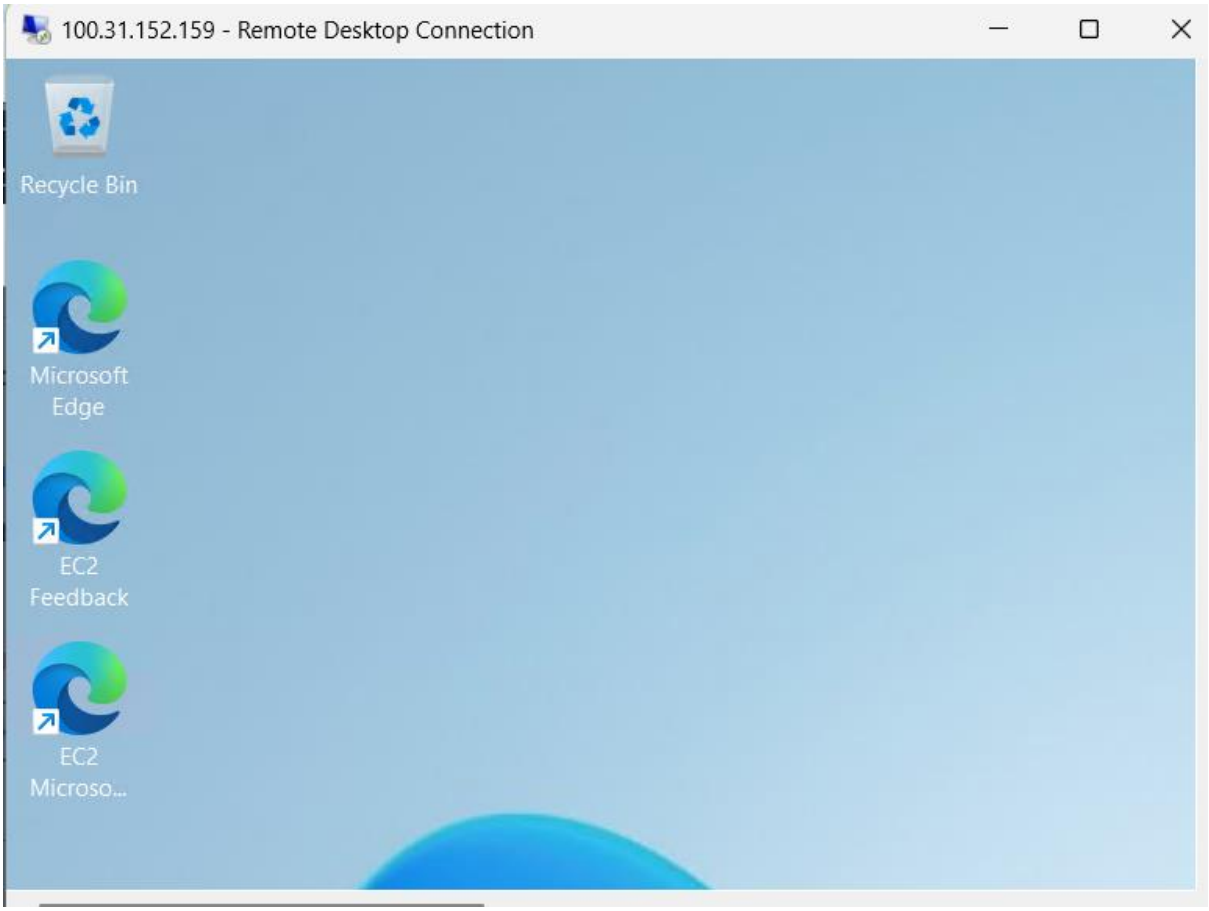

Copy this

12. Username: Administrator
13. Password: Decrypted password
14. Computer: Public IPv4 address
15. Open Remote Desktop Connectionok .

16. Enter the Public IP → Connect.
17. Enter Administrator + Password.
18. Windows EC2 desktop will open.

Output

Result:

The Windows Server EC2 instance was successfully launched and configured in AWS. Remote access to the Windows Server was successfully established.